Everett Press, a Republican Journal, Recommends

POLITICAL TRIMMER'S

Retirement From Congress—Tortuous Career of Deserter and Party Wrecker Depicted.

The Everett Press, a Republican newspaper widely read in this county, will today contain the following article:

"The welfare of the Republican party, its success in Bedford County and the good name of the 19th Congressional District of Pennsylvania demand the defeat of the Honorable John M. Reynolds next Tuesday.

"For two terms he has misrepresented this district in Congress. A product of the Penrose Machine, a servitor of the bosses, his record is colorless. He has bowed at the feet of Joe Cannon and voted as he received the orders. In the eight years that he named himself a Republican, he has disrupted the magnificent party organization of Bedford County and placed it in the doubtful column. Politically, he is an arrogant dictator, selfish, haughty and overbearing, and lacking in the requisites to give him a standing in the Halls of Congress. His record is that of a dispensary of political patronage. The newspapers of the county that support him have been held in line by the appointment of editors to the office of postmaster in the towns where published and their pages have been filled with columns of 'foolish' praise, believed to be written in his office to tickle his egotistical vanity. Modesty is to him an unknown term. A Democrat under Hoke Smith, he cut off the pensions of hundreds of deserving veterans, and now poses as a friend of the old soldier and has the effrontery to claim by post cards labeled with his taintype the laurels due the brilliant Congressman Lefean of the York, Pa., district, who is the father of the bill raising widow's pensions to twelve dollars a month. He has treated the people as fools in claiming credit to himself for free rural delivery, a service as perfect in the hopelessly Democratic districts of Pennsylvania as in the strongest Republican district of the North.

"A servant of great corporations, riding on the passes of the Pennsylvania Railroad and using the frank of the Western Union Telegraph Company, he hopes to blind the people by sending them packages of garden seeds at the expense of the general government. Priding himself on his vast fortune, he has nothing in common with the plain people but banks upon their loyalty to the party to keep in Congress.

Referring to Philadelphia's great Republican newspaper, the North American, of Friday, October 23, we find a list of Congressmen who, though fairly respectable, achieve little good, obey the bosses and have made no mark in legislation. Concerning the Congressman from this district, the paper says:

"John Merriman Reynolds of the Nineteenth District is a lawyer and has large business interests in his district. As a member he has thus far been absolutely colorless. He goes along with the Republican majority and is apparently content to vote as the leaders wish him to."

"He opposed the policy of President Roosevelt by voting against the bill authorizing the building of four battleships, a measure that would have given employment to the steel workers of Pennsylvania throughout this year of panic. For that act, a stalwart Republican paper of Philadelphia designated him, along with three other Pennsylvanians, as guilty of treason to the administration. His record as a renegade Democrat, with the fact that he is attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad, have sealed his lips in the Halls of Congress, compelled him to vote as the party leaders dictated, and left his record colorless. His policy is supremely selfish. He opposed party unity in the county that he might retain power as the representative of a faction. It is understood that no Republican can receive a party nomination on the county ticket without he first swears allegiance to this would-be boss. He has crushed out the old-time party leaders who made Republicanism a power in Bedford County and has taken possession of the party and its organization for his own personal ends.

"No man, living or dead, was ever so unpopular as Reynolds in his own county. Witness the loss of his own ward, his home town, his county, and the fact that he was thirty-one hundred votes behind his ticket at the election of 1904.

"His betrayal of the Democrats when he held office under Cleveland and his breaking of personal pledges to obtain the control of the Republican organization in 1901, have passed into history and can never be forgotten. Politically, he has been all things to all men to promote his own selfish interests. He is a worshipper of Penrose and a servitor in the hands of the machine. By his extreme selfishness and haughty dictation he has utterly wrecked the party in Bedford County. He would have it that no Republican can obtain a nomination in the county without first bowing the knee to Reynolds, and, as a consequence, no Republican candidate, once it is known that he is

CONSIDER!

A VOTE FOR TATE IS A VOTE FOR A GENTLEMAN WITH A HEART, UNSELFISH AND GENEROUS, WHO WAS NEVER KNOWN TO DESERT A FRIEND IN POLITICS OR ELSEWHERE. NO SOLDIER NEED FEAR MR. TATE IN CONGRESS, NOR NEED ANY OTHER PERSON; APPEALS TO HIM WILL NOT BE IN VAIN. HE IS INTELLIGENTLY WELL QUALIFIED FOR THE PLACE AND HE WILL WORK FOR THE INTERESTS OF HIS CONSTITUENTS. HE IS NOT A CORPORATION LAWYER, NOR DOES HE USE A TELEGRAPHIC FRANK. VOTE FOR HUMPHREY D. TATE AND WE SHALL HAVE IN CONGRESS A REPRESENTATIVE WHO WILL NOT PROVE "ABSOLUTELY COLORLESS."

AT THE PUBLIC CRIB!

John M. Reynolds has gnawed many nubbins, see the pile of cobs:

First, from 1872 to 1896, as a Democrat and when the county was Democratic.

1872—Elected to the Legislature.

1873—Re-elected to the Legislature.

1875—Appointed District Attorney.

1875—Elected District Attorney.

1878—Candidate for nomination for Congress.

1881—Candidate for nomination for Judge.

1882—Candidate for Senate, defeated by Hon. J. H. Longenecker.

1891—Appointed by Gov. Pattison on the commission to erect the Wernersville State Lunatic Hospital.

1891—Nominated for Judge and defeated by Hon. J. H. Longenecker.

1893—Appointed Assistant Secretary of the Interior by President Cleveland, and served over four years.

In addition to the foregoing, Mr. Reynolds was frequently honored by the Democratic party as delegate to the State and National conventions.

1896—Chairman of the Palmer and Buckner County Committee.

Second, from 1896 to 1908, as a Republican, and after the county had changed to Republican.

1900—Candidate for nomination for Congress.

1902—Candidate for nomination for Congress.

1904—Candidate for Congress, lost his home ward, his home town and Bedford County by 800.

1906—Candidate for Congress and again defeated in the county.

1908—Candidate for Congress, and this year the majority in Bedford County against him will be much greater than in 1904.

A vote for Reynolds will be one to continue in office this habitual officeholder, and to continue this fopper in Congress.

Taft Blundering

The Republican campaign is hampered with various kinds of blundering. In one district in Ohio, for instance, Taft was led to make a "prosperity" speech with his back against the wall of a factory. "Is not the present condition good enough for you?" said Taft, in substance. "Why change? Do not turn down Republican prosperity. Do not change your present condition for worse." When he got through he was told that the factory alongside of which he had spoken had been shut down for a year, that his audience had been out of work for months, and that any man who mentioned prosperity in that district stood a good chance for tar and feathers. Taft was mad clear through, not for the first time in this campaign. He sought out the local committee and climbed its back. He demanded to know why he had not been tipped off as to the conditions in the district, and by the time he had delivered a few well-chosen words the local committee was headed for the mountains.—Exchange.

"In accordance with your invitation I wish to state that, in my judgment, the election of Bryan would be for the best interests of the whole nation."

"He stands on much the better platform and will be guided by it in the event of his election. Mr. Taft is handicapped by the zealous advocacy of his cause by the predatory rich. Honest wealth and business have nothing to fear in Bryan's election."—John Mitchell's dispatch to the New York World.

How to "Split" a Ticket

Those Republicans who want to vote for Taft and the Democratic Congressional and local tickets may do so by putting a cross (X) in the square at the head of the group of Presidential electors, and then placing a cross (X) after each name for the other offices.

Voters May Ask Aid

Any voter may call into the booth anyone he chooses, even a candidate, to assist him in marking his ballot. Mental or physical disability is not necessary to secure aid at a general election.

Go to the polls and vote! Vote a straight ticket if you like. If your desire is to cut your ticket do not be cajoled or frightened from doing so by the bogy man, as cutting a ticket is a simple matter if a little time and care is taken. Vote your convictions, it's your right as well as your privilege.

"ABSOLUTELY COLORLESS"

John Merriman Reynolds of the Nineteenth District, is a lawyer, and has large business interests in his district. As a member he has thus far been absolutely colorless. He goes along with the Republican majority, and is apparently content to vote as the leaders wish him to.—Philadelphia North American, October 23.

VICTORY IN SIGHT

All Indications Plainly Point to the Election of

HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN

With a Full Democratic Vote We'll Carry the County Against Reynolds and Elect the Local Ticket.

Despite the fact that President Roosevelt has further degraded the high office he holds by writing additional letters and by driving practically his whole Cabinet onto the stump, all indications point to the election of William J. Bryan next Tuesday. Tremendous crowds have greeted and cheered him at every turn. The Democratic party is united on him and is working harmoniously for his election. He is making a whirlwind finish in New York, the pivotal point, with good effect. Chairman Mack claims his election by a good majority. Unless all signs fail he will be inaugurated President on the fourth of next March.

John M. Reynolds will again lose his home ward, town and county, and is likely to meet a similar rebuke in both Blair and Cambria Counties. His defeat is almost certain; he will fall from the pedestal where his treachery and trickery and double dealing have placed him because he was not known in Blair and Cambria. The people are tired of an "Absolutely Colorless" representative in Congress.

The local Democratic ticket will be elected if a full Democratic vote is polled. The leaders whom Reynolds has crowded out of places to which they are justly entitled are not obeying the mandates of the boss who owns the Republican ticket the nomination of which he dictated. No man need apply, except through Reynolds, for a place on the Republican county ticket.

The defeat of Reynolds and his ticket will eliminate him from politics, for there is no other party for him to join—he's tried them all.

The Democratic Ticket

The Democratic ticket is a good one and merits support next Tuesday. Humphrey D. Tate is well qualified to represent this district in Congress. Wherever he is known he is liked. He is courteous and able, and if elected will not vote for Cannon for Speaker. He will not "vote as the leaders say."

John L. Bortz is not tied to any class; is not mortgaged to Penrose and will not vote to return him to the U. S. Senate.

John T. Matt has the courage of his convictions and will take the wishes of the people into consideration in the granting of licenses.

J. Floyd Cessna is an active and intelligent young man who will make a good Sheriff.

Francis M. Amos is a crippled veteran of the Civil War, and has successfully conducted the business in the Recorder's office. His countrymen should show their appreciation of his going to the battle's front in our country's hour of need.

Jo. W. Tate is familiar with the work in the Prothonotary's office, having served as deputy, and is well qualified to fill the place.

Charles H. Dorn is a business man of exceptional ability and will make a first-class Treasurer.

Frank Fletcher's integrity and ability have never been questioned. His election as District Attorney will break the Reynolds-Sell combine. He will not be the tool of Reynolds nor any other boss.

Easter and Blackburn are both plain, practical men and, as Commissioners, will conduct affairs in a satisfactory manner.

Andrew J. Steckman is suited to the office of Poor Director.

Hersberger and Aldstadt may be depended upon to do the work of auditing the county accounts neatly and accurately. They are both bright young men and occupy prominent places as teachers in the public schools.

Dr. P. H. Pensyl is a physician of experience, having served as surgeon in the Civil War.

Let every Democrat turn out and vote the straight ticket. Independent voters will go the rest.

OSTER'S RECORD

A Willing Tool of Penrose Machine—Was "Absent and Not Voting."

A vote for George W. Oster, Republican candidate for Representative, is a vote to give Boies Penrose a third term in the United States Senate. Voters of Bedford County should remember this when they go to the polls on November 3 next. Official records of the Legislature of 1907, in which Oster served as a member of the House of Representatives, show that he was one of the most willing tools of the corrupt Penrose State Machine. Oster may boast of his independence of the Machine

CAN REYNOLDS WIN?

The Pittsburgh Dispatch, in reviewing the Congressional situation in the state, refers to the Nineteenth District and says: "Mr. Reynolds and his friends assert that he will come through with a safe majority, but there is considerable uncertainty as to whether this is correct."

There is indeed. It is an uncertainty which increases day by day, and the more Mr. Reynolds and his friends try to clear it up the worse it becomes.

Mr. Reynolds has no record of achievement to fall back upon. His two terms in the House have been barren of results. His legislation has left an impression of legislation. He has simply been on hand when needed by Cannon, Dalzell and Sherman to vote according to orders; and if Mr. Reynolds has ever voted for any measure that the House oligarchy did not want the fact has escaped attention.

Mr. Reynolds is himself a corporation man. He is a banker and is therefore opposed to the guaranty of bank deposits. He is a manufacturer and he is therefore a standpatter of the Dalzell type. His vote in Congress would be for higher rather than lower duties and for an extension of trust domination rather than its curtailment. He is a railroad attorney and rides on railroad passes and he is therefore not to be expected to take any step in the public interest which would be offensive to his powerful client.

Thousands of voters in the Nineteenth District have been idle or but partly employed for more than a year. Their savings have been exhausted. Their credit has been strained to the breaking point. Their rent in many hundreds of cases has not been paid. Their children need clothes which they are unable to purchase. Their wives are reduced to pitiful economies that are heart-breaking when one comes to view them. The winter is almost at hand and the larder and the coal bin alike are empty; the dinner pail grows rusty; the grocer and the butcher are asked; and relief is not yet in sight.

Mr. Reynolds, of course, tells these unfortunate victims of "overprosperity" that Mr. Taft's election will have immediate resumption. But if the Republicans can start the mills up November 4, why can't they start them up October 27? Why couldn't they keep the mills going in 1907? Why did they not start the wheels a year ago, or six months ago, or a month ago? Have the Republicans enjoyed the scenes of hunger and distress which have everywhere attended the Roosevelt hard times? Have they listened with complacency to the cries of 15,000 starving children in the schools of Chicago alone? Have they found satisfaction in the soup houses and the crowded jails marking the progress of the greatest industrial collapse in the history of the United States? Surely this must be the case if there is any foundation to the claim they now set up that they can start the mills and open the mines the moment Mr. Taft is elected. For if they can start the mills and open the mines next Wednesday they could have done this at any time; and if they could have done it at any time and have not done it they are confessedly guilty of a tremendous crime against the poor.

But the election of Taft will not and cannot start the mills or open the mines. And Mr. Reynolds knows this. He knows that his party is responsible for the conditions which brought on the panic. He knows that his party not only is incapable of changing those conditions, but that it has no disposition or desire to change them. It is Mr. Taft's highest aim to "clinch" those policies which have brought the country to its present lamentable pass and to carry

REYNOLDS AND THE SOLDIERS

John M. Reynolds, the strenuous trickster, is trying, by sending out postal cards containing his "taintype" and through his personal organs, to capture the soldier vote; but the boys who wear the blue know Mr. Reynolds, and well remember that when he was under Hoke Smith in the Interior Department he boasted of how much he would save the government by "purging" the pension rolls. He boasted at the time that by a decision of his, approved by Hoke Smith, he had saved the Government $20,000,000 a year. Out of about 9,000 appeals from rejection in the pension department, he turned down approximately 8,500. Was he then the soldiers' friend? "Tis hard to change the leopard's spots."

SHAME! A DIRTY TRICK! WHO DID IT?

A FEW REMARKS

On the County Fair by General Manager Statler.

The Bedford County Fair for 1908 is over and was a grand success, notwithstanding the efforts of some people to cry it down from start to finish.

Our people see what a Fair can be if all are willing to help it along. No Fair can exist on the small sum of 25 cents admission, and be a success. In the future, if the farmers of Bedford County want a good Fair and larger premiums, the admission fee must be higher. When you know the cost of running a successful Fair, you can readily see that 25 cents admission will not meet the expenses and pay the premiums. The races this year were first-class, and in order to have good races you must offer good purses. Our admission of 25 cents is not enough to pay for good races. The expenses of the Fair were very heavy, especially repairing the track. New trunks across the track had to be dug out and put in; a new grandstand and a new judge's stand had to be built; all the stables had to be virtually rebuilt, the greater part of the fence around the track had to be repaired and the outside fence entirely overhauled; almost the entire wood work inside the grounds was white washed and the main building was very much out of repair. A floor of some description must be put in the main building at this time, when the association has a surplus in its treasury, and a full half-mile track should be built. More ground should be purchased on the west side of the grounds, as there is not room enough on a big day for the people to get around and insure safety.

The management has done all it could this year to make the Fair a success, notwithstanding the many unkind remarks by a few who were not in sympathy with us. I am surprised at how many try to squeeze the blood out of the finances of the association. This should not be, but all should try to get the association on a good financial basis. There has been a great deal of talk in regard to some of the privileges granted. People should tell the truth and not lie. Again it has been said that gambling was allowed. There was not a single privilege granted for gambling, one stand was closed for trying it and the fellow put off for the grounds.

I would recommend that the association plant shade trees on the grounds. What shade trees are there were planted in 1883, through my efforts, when I was General Manager. If two hundred trees had been planted then what fine shade would be there now! The race track should be kept in repair during the summer and not allowed to grow up with weeds and grass. One of the best things the management has done was to offer a reward of $15 for the arrest and conviction of anyone trespassing on the grounds and destroying the property. While the property of the association is in my care, anyone who is found trespassing on the grounds will surely be prosecuted. I, for one, do not care to fill any position, if I can get out of it, but have always worked for the interest of the association, regardless of time and labor. In 1887 I was manager and spent six months of my time building the track at the grounds without any compensation whatever, and am today satisfied that what I did was for the good of Bedford County.

There were two pairs of carriages and one glass of port left at the building, which can be had by calling at my store.

A JEWELER'S EXPERIENCE.

C. R. Kluger, The Jeweler, 1600 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk. I had lost my appetite and my backache and the regularities disappeared, and I could not attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." Ed. D. Heckerman.

A SURPRISED MINISTER

Hyomei Cured Bronchial Catarrh After He Had Given Up in Despair.

"For many years I have been a sufferer from bronchial catarrh, and had despaired of anything like a cure. Judge of my pleasant surprise when I first used Hyomei, which brought complete relief. Hyomei has been a veritable godsend."—Rev. Charles Hartley, Sardinia, Ohio.

There are many readers of The Gazette who are suffering from catarrh, either nasal or bronchial. Many of these despair of ever being cured. They have soaked their stomachs with nostrums until they are disgusted with all medicines, and are now traveling their miserable way, allowing the devilish germs of catarrh to sap them of their health, energy and vitality.

But let us reason together. F. W. Jordan, the druggist, has a guaranteed remedy for catarrh, colds, coughs, bronchitis, croup, and all inflammatory diseases of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes. The name of this remarkable remedy is Hyomei, and if it doesn't cure F. W. Jordan will give you your money back.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) is medicated air, you just breathe it through the inhaler over the inflamed and germ-ridden membrane, and its soothing antiseptic properties will allay the inflammation, destroy the germs, and restore the entire respiratory tract to its normal conditions.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs but $1.00, and an extra bottle of Hyomei, if afterwards needed, costs but 50 cents. See F. W. Jordan about it today.

"THE BREAD LINE"

An Appeal From the Bowery Mission For Aid.

The Bowery Mission "Bread Line," at which 1,000 men who are out in the streets for the night are given a breakfast of hot coffee and rolls every morning at 1 o'clock, is one of the most pathetic sights in all the wide, wide world. Long before the hour of opening, these poor, starving men stand in a single line that sometimes extends for blocks in length, waiting for the coffee and rolls. During the winter, this breakfast is given to an aggregate of 210,000 homeless men and boys, and up to date over half a million of the homeless have had their weary tramp restfully interrupted by this unique ministrations. The first of these Breakfasts is given on Thanksgiving morning, and the last on the following Easter morning. Altogether the Mission supplied, this year, over 312,000 meals and 57,072 lodgings to homeless men and boys.

It is for this grand, philanthropic work that we ask your kind and practical co-operation. The homeless, friendless, disheartened and despairing men and boys of the Bowery are not native New Yorkers, but men and boys who, until within a year, lived happily at the old homestead with father and mother, and perhaps wife. They are stranded here, and in despair appeal to the Old Bowery Mission, which, for over thirty years, has been to the unfortunate, as the rescue cities of old, a haven of encouragement, rest and protection. Shall we turn them away? It rests with the good people of this country to decide this question, and may God graciously help you to decide it aright.

JOHN C. EARL, Financial Secretary, 92 Bible House, New York City.

CLAUSS.—At Blandburg, Cambria County, Wednesday, October 14, Miss Anna Clauss, aged 56 years, three months and 19 days; a native of this county.

BRYAN AND PROSPERITY

No Spectacle After He is Elected of Fifteen Thousand Men Crying for Work in Pittsburgh.

When Bryan is elected there will be no sensational tirades against men of wealth. The laws will be enforced fairly and without bluster. There will be no favoritism. No Mortons will be whitewashed and other railroad men, less guilty, punished. No steel trust will be coddled while non-contributive trusts will be harassed. Everybody will get—not the promise of the gambling phrase of a "square deal"—but a fair chance and equal rights and no proscription or injury to business. We shall then have no such condition as the following described in a press dispatch from Pittsburgh on the 8th day of February, 1908:

"The cry of the unemployed daily grows more distressed in Pittsburgh. There are 15,000 men idle, and the specter of the dreaded soup houses again makes its appearance. The first soup house will be opened by the Salvation Army Monday morning, and unless there is some radical and prompt change for the better, more places of this kind will be in demand before many days have elapsed. The situation is not really alarming, but it is bad enough. Soup houses have been the dread of the business men and civic leaders, and every effort has been made to avoid them."

Bears the Signature of The Kind You Have Always Bought.

But for the blessed Dingley tariff American newspapers would buy news print paper in Canada for $1.75. On this side they are paying all the way from $2.25 to $2.60. Canadian paper is as good as the domestic product, and the labor employed in making it is as well paid as that on this side the border.—Johnstown Democrat.

RATIONAL CURE FOR ECZEMA

No More Dosing of the Stomach—Cure the Skin Through the Skin.

When you have a scratch on your hand you wash it out and cleanse it and then the skin cures itself. You do not take blood medicine to cure a festering wound.

The best skin specialists today are agreed that the only way to cure the skin is through the skin.

The fact that eczema is a skin disease and not a blood disease is evident from statistics which show that nearly all eczema sufferers are perfectly healthy in all other ways except as to their skin. If the eczema patients were really suffering from an inward malady, the entire body and not only the skin would be diseased.

You can prove immediately the relief of a true skin cure by using oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription.

This liquid attacks the disease germs, numbing them while building up the healthy tissue of the skin. We have now handled this meritorious and thoroughly scientific remedy for so long and have seen its reliable result so many times that we freely express our confidence. F. W. Jordan, Bedford, Pa.

Taft and his supporters are insisting that if Bryan should be elected a hostile Senate would defeat Democratic aims. This is an admission that they are false in their claim that the people rule, as Bryan says they should. Paste that in your hat.—Johnstown Democrat.

TAFT'S RELIGION

Creed of Presidential Candidate Outlined by Indiana "Journal."

Editor Gazette:—Reading the following from the Journal, Arcadia, Ind., I ask you to publish it so all your readers may think, and thinking, act:

"It would hurt some of our Republican friends to look at the dictionary just a little. There are two definitions that are very interesting at this time. From Webster's dictionary we quote the following: 'Infidel—one who disbelieves the inspiration of the Scripture, and the divine origin of Christianity.' 'Unitarianism—the doctrines of Unitarians, who deny the divinity of Christ.' No longer ago than Sunday at Topeka the pastor of the Unitarian Church used these expressions: 'We do not believe that Jesus was the son of the so-called Holy Ghost by the Virgin Mary, but we regard him as the natural son of Joseph and Mary.' 'The story of the fall of Adam is a Semitic myth.' 'We know that the Bible was produced by the genius of men.' This is the belief of Unitarians—this is the belief of William H. Taft, who has the nerve to ask Christian support for the Presidency of a Christian nation. John says: 'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.' * * * And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.' Our Republican friends who are so disposed can accept Mr. Taft as a representative of Christian America, but we prefer to accept the old Bible as it is. We can not help thinking that the Christians who vote for Mr. Taft are making a serious mistake. As leading candidates for the Presidency we have an ideal Christian against an infidel. One accepts Christ as a personal Saviour and never loses any opportunity to exalt 'the Prince of Peace,' while the other speaks in Christian churches for political effect, denies the divinity of the Master and believes that 'the Bible was produced by the genius of men.' We appeal to our Republican friends, when they are about to make the cross that will turn down the Christian and lift up the infidel, to pause a moment and say with the great Apostle, 'Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?'"

A GOOD REASON

Bedford People Can Tell You Why It Is So.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Bedford people testify to permanent cures.

Mrs. D. O. Smith, living on W. Pitt St., Bedford, Pa., says: "My daughter has suffered from kidney trouble for a long time. She had severe pains in her back and loins, she suffered from frequent chills and was often very dizzy. She finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Irvine's drug store, and began using them. They proved to be just the remedy she required and they seemed to go at once to the seat of the trouble. She is today much better in every way and gives Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

A GOOD SUGGESTION

After Election is no Time to Disclose the Tools by Which Wrongdoing May Have Been Promoted.

Why cannot Chairmen Hitchcock and Mack arrange a weekly or daily publication of all contributions and expenditures? That is the proper thing to do. Do it now! Commence it at once! After the election it is too late! Let the people of the United States have full knowledge of what is going on in both parties in the way of receipts and expenditures. No money should be accepted tainted by pledge of patronage or legislative favor. No money should be expended for purposes that cannot be disclosed to the voters. Reputations of leaders will be saved and honor of candidates and parties preserved by open publication.

After the election is no time to disclose the tools by which wrongdoing may have been promoted. Publishing the money transactions now and let the voters know their own party is pure and upright. Secrecy now has become the handmaiden of guilt in the minds of people.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

BRYAN'S FITNESS

Democratic Candidate Well Qualified to Fill the

PRESIDENTIAL CHAIR

He is Optimistic, Progressive, Honest and Sincere—Praises the Good and Condemns Bad.

Chicago, Ill.—When all that can be said, has been said in the present campaign, when all the issues which may honestly cause a division of opinion among thinking men, are set aside, and when the contest is stripped of all conflicting contentions, the one paramount fact stands out in bold relief, that no candidate ever entered the race for the presidency better fitted to discharge the functions of that high office than William Jennings Bryan. In the first place Mr. Bryan is an honest man. He is sincere. Not even his most bitter political opponents have ever had the temerity to question his honesty or to doubt his sincerity. His life has been clean, his character is above reproach. He has lived in the open; his every act both in public and private life is subject to the closest scrutiny. For twelve years he has occupied the spotlight of publicity without blinking. He rings true to the highest ideals of human life. There is no stain upon his escutcheon; no skeletons in his closet. He typifies in the highest degree the lofty conception of American manhood. No citizen in private life, by precept and example, by words and deeds, has done more for the moral and material uplift of all the people than has Mr. Bryan.

There is no greater student of political and economic conditions in the United States today than Mr. Bryan. It is his knowledge of history coupled with his keen judgment of men and measures which enables him to grasp and understand present day conditions. His ideals, grounded in human sympathy, have been broadened and strengthened by travel and study. His investigations into social and political conditions have not been confined to his own country, but have embraced almost every civilized land.

Mr. Bryan is an optimist and progressive. He looks upon the bright side of things and believes that the world is growing better. He sees ways and means by which that betterment might be advanced, and with all of his marvelous ability and great force of character he strives for their accomplishment. He has not labored solely within the narrow confines of partisanship. Never has he hesitated to commend the acts of a Republican administration wherein he believed them to be for the benefit of the whole people. His commendation of the good has been as strong as his denunciation of the bad. He has, within the past 12 years, lived to see some of the important fundamental principles for which he stood become the accepted doctrines of a party and administration which, but a short time before, had rejected them and condemned him for advocating them.

Mr. Bryan's career has demonstrated that without holding public office a man may gain the very best experience for the performance of public duty, particularly when, to that experience we add honesty and sincerity of purpose. These present the qualifications and especial fitness of Mr. Bryan for the Presidency. No man with his heart in the right place as is Mr. Bryan's, with his hand upon the public pulse, and with his sympathies for the advancement of the welfare of the whole people, can fail to achieve signal success as President. The time has passed when Mr. Bryan was wrongfully considered a mere theorist. He is looked upon now as an intensely practical man; as a man of experience. His administration will be one of progress along safe lines.

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will dissuade you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

REYNOLDS AN UTTER FAILURE

Straw Man, Thinks a Local Voter, Would Have Done as Well at Washington.

There is no getting around the fact that Hon. John M. Reynolds is a bad odor with the people of Johnstown. That has been developed very clearly within the last few weeks; ever since, in fact, the Treasury Department handed the Hon. John M. a lemon in the shape of a setback in the plans for a new federal building for Johnstown. The Johnstown Tribune has from time to time during the last two or three years contained rosy dispatches from Washington telling of the progress Reynolds was making in securing that new building. He was hearing the treasury officers every day, in an effort to get them busy on the plans for the structure. According to the Tribune's advice he was certainly making life miserable for those government people and the longer they put him off the more pitiable did their condition become. Reynolds was the sleuth of the yellowbacks. He was going to have that Johnstown building by hook or crook. And the Tribune told with great éclat what a great personage the Hon. John M. was in Washington and how he was held in fear and respect by the whole government, from top to bottom. Concerning this a voter said yesterday:

"Well, most of the people of Johnstown swallowed these stories with a good deal of salt. They had to be shown." When Reynolds finally got a couple of appropriations through Congress providing for a site and the erection of a federal building here the people began to think that he was doing some good at Washington after all. But no—come to think of it, he did not get a single appropriation until every other important city in Pennsylvania had been provided for. Reynolds did not get it; it was thrown at him. The government was not, it appears, going to be hurried by Mr. Reynolds. Finally the bids were all in and it was expected that an inspector would be sent to Johnstown to look the sites over, that a contract would at once be let and that the new federal building before long would be a reality.

"And now 'where are we at?' Practically where we were two years ago. The treasury people, said the Tribune, promised Reynolds that an inspector would be sent to Johnstown in early September. Then he was promised for the latter part of September. Then word was received—via the Tribune—that the inspector had been assigned to other cities, including McKeesport and Sharon. Johnstown—poor old Johnstown!—would have to wait! And now the Lord only knows 'where we are at.' Reynolds, if he ever had any influence at Washington, apparently has lost it all. No one knows when Johnstown will get that long-awaited building. To all appearances the jig is up for some time to come.

"That is what has hurt Reynolds with the people of Johnstown. During the time he has been in office he has not done a blessed thing for his constituents here. In Congress he has been a mere figurehead. He minded 'Joe' Cannon and that was about the extent of his service. His name has never appeared in the public prints as doing anything in the House. He is one of that great body of Republican Congressmen who have been held in the hollows of the hands of Cannon, Tawney and Sherman. There is rebellion in the Republican ranks and optimism among the Democrats. Reynolds has a colorless record. It is time to send some one to Washington who can at least let the world know that the Nineteenth District is on the map.

"Humphrey D. Tate of Bedford, the Democratic candidate, at present has by far the lead. There is no division in the party ranks. Tate has a big personal following. He is stronger in his home county than is Reynolds, and, it is believed, is also the favorite in Blair. In Cambria there is no question of his popularity. Reynolds hasn't done a thing except to secure a few pensions. The district could as well have had a 'straw man' in the national legislative chamber."—Johnstown Democrat.

HOW TO MIX IT

Directions To Prepare a Simple Home Mixture

THE DOSE TO TAKE

Tells You How to Overcome Rheumatism With Simple Recipe, Which is Easily Mixed.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the following valuable, though simple and harmless, prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

Railroad Employees vs Mr. Taft
The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' Journal, in May, 1893, said: "Judge Taft's decision proclaims members of the B. of L. E. a band of conspirators."

Also: "We cannot accept Judge Taft's decision in any other light than treason to Republican institutions and the liberties of the people. It is, will be, and ought to be denounced and repudiated by all liberty-loving men."

Help to Do It

The Republican party has opened war on organized labor. If any one is in doubt upon that subject Roosevelt's last letter—written by Trust Attorney Knox, Senator from Pennsylvania—ought to settle it. The vote of no workingman need now be cast in the dark. He cannot avoid knowing what he is doing. He should join the Democracy in "turning the rascals out." We are going to do it anyhow, but get into the band wagon. You will feel better after Bryan is in the White House if you helped to place him there.—Cumberland Times.

TURNER ART EXHIBIT

At Assembly Hall Next Week, November 4 to 6.

In regard to the Turner Art Exhibit which will be held in the public school building Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, the following are testimonials of the worth from those qualified to judge:

"They are all illustrative of objects of world-wide interest and of great educational value, and especially suitable for schoolroom decoration."—Providence Sunday Telegram.

"Genuine artistic merit is the quality for which the pictures have been chosen, their value as an aid to general school work, although great in some cases, being a minor consideration. Old masters as well as modern artists are represented."—New York Post.

"The collection of photographs and photogravures of famous paintings now on exhibition in the High School is considered the finest ever presented in St. Louis."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"There is something for every taste, and no one will be disappointed."—Columbus Citizen.

"There is history, poetry, nature, religion, and all that is lovely in life represented by the masters of old and modern times. All pictures of suffering have been excluded, even though it meant the rejection of Ruben's masterpiece, 'The Descent from the Cross.'"—Detroit Journal.

"It is probably the best collection of its kind ever shown in Dayton. The selection is admirable, embodying a wide range of artists and the various schools."—Daily Evening Herald.

Look Haven, Pa., Oct 19, 1908. Prof. Landis Tanger,

Dear Sir:—You are wise in deciding to conduct the Turner Art Exhibit, as I am sure your people will say when they have seen the pictures. We conducted the exhibit several years ago at Emporium and while some were doubtful beforehand all were enthusiastic long before the finish. The exhibit has been greatly improved since that time, as I saw at State College last summer.

The pictures are fine reproductions of the masterpieces in art, and I know of no better way to cultivate and elevate the artistic taste of people, old or young, than to bring this exhibit to them. It helps many who cannot visit the great art galleries. In this exhibit they may view the pictures at leisure, not once, but often. I consider it a liberal education in itself. I wish you unbounded success in your undertaking, and congratulate the people of Bedford on their opportunity.

I have said nothing of the benefits of having before the pupils in their respective rooms pictures of an ennobling and uplifting character, but of course this is the great end sought, and I hope you may abundantly realize the object in view.

Prof. Young, our high school principal, says they found that they were able to do better than the Turner people offered in the framing of the pictures, by going to local dealers. We purchased frames and all, but they run pretty high.

Very truly yours,
Edward S. Ling,
Supt. Schools.

THAT COLORED VOTE

The Bedford Inquirer is considerably disturbed over the colored vote in this county and well it may be. The colored men have long served the Republican party in this county but have never been recognized politically by that party; on the other hand they have been spurned and rejected.

The colored people well remember when one of their race, Jacob Young, fairly won a place on the ticket at the primary election but was ruthlessly taken off by the bosses. Such is the treatment they have received in the past, and they naturally judge the future by the past.

ANDREWS' LETTER

Wesley R. Andrews, the Chairman of the Republican State Committee, is sending out letters to those who will vote the first time this fall, urging them to support the party of McKinley and Roosevelt, saying among other things: "Under their leadership the country has made more rapid strides in power, wealth and prosperity than ever before." Two-thirds true; but the power which belongs to the people has been usurped by the trusts and combines, and the wealth has been taken from the laboring class—the producers of wealth—and now rests in the coffers of these same trusts and combines. It is this wealth that gives them the power.

As to the third item—prosperity—if it exists today it is with the same corporations, trusts and combines. The idle mills tell the story of the laboring classes, and if further evidence is necessary it may be found in the existence of soup houses on which the Republicans also have a monopoly in this panic.

REYNOLDS' PRIVILEGES

Unless the postmark on some letters lying before us tells an untruth John M. Reynolds is sending out letters from Bedford informing farmers of his having ordered the Secretary of Agriculture to forward to them certain reports from which he trusts they may derive as much pleasure in receiving as he does in sending. THESE LETTERS GO WITHOUT STAMPS. Such are his privileges as Congressman, we suppose.

But why should he have the use of the mails for forwarding letters that are designed to help him politically when common people have to pay two cents for each sealed letter they send? But this is not the only privilege he possesses. He uses a frank with the telegraph company to send his messages, while laborers and mechanics and farmers must pay for the messages that summon sorrowing relatives or friends home to pay the last tribute of respect to some departed one near and dear to them.

He, as a Railroad Solicitor, travels on a pass at will while those in common walks of life are often compelled to use their last penny to make a necessary trip.

Is this man who "stands in" with the corporations and accepts these favors from them the stripe of Representative we should have in Congress? Under these circumstances can he be trusted to vote in Congress for bills favoring plain people as against corporations and trusts?

AN ESTIMATE OF REYNOLDS

The Philadelphia North American, which is doing its utmost to have Taft elected President and which wants the House to be of the same complexion, under the following paragraph, in its issue of October 23, gave an impartial estimate of the Pennsylvania Representatives for reelection:

"For the information of the public, the North American is publishing an impartial estimate of the Pennsylvania candidates for the lower House of Congress. The articles are written by this newspaper's Washington correspondent, who has closely observed the work of the delegation."

Having discussed a number of other members of the House, the North American's correspondent finally reached the Nineteenth District and spoke of Mr. Reynolds as follows:

"John Merryman Reynolds of the Nineteenth District is a lawyer, and has large business interests in his district. As a member he has thus far been absolutely colorless. He goes along with the Republican majority, and is apparently content to vote as the leaders wish him to."

Such is the estimate of a special correspondent who observed the actions of the Pennsylvania delegation with care of John M. Reynolds who was elected to Congress in 1904 and again in 1906, though he lost this county both times. Is this the kind of man the Nineteenth District wants in Congress?

OSTER'S LETTER

Hon. George W. Oster is circulating a letter through the county in which he says his record is an open book, and he invites the voters to carefully scrutinize it. Since all the voters of the county do not have access to the Legislative Record we reprint this week an article published in The Gazette of October 2, which shows where he stood and how he voted when his services were needed by the Penrose Machine.

By evading it he admits that he will vote to return Penrose to the U. S. Senate. He does not deny, nor can he deny, that he voted as set forth in the article in this issue giving his record. It is not necessary for the voters to leaf through the voluminous account of the sessions of the last Legislature. We have made it easy. Call on Mr. Oster and ask him to turn to pages 525-6 of the House Journal. There you'll see the official record. Then ask to see pages 763-4 of the same Journal; also pages 813-4, 656-7, 1429-40 and 1941-2. A glance at these pages will tell you whether or not "certain unscrupulous persons and newspapers are lying" about him.

He is enclosing testimonials as to himself as a legislator from fellow members of the last House. Perhaps many if not all of these want Oster returned so as to have him on hand for the last night of the session. If you want to know what a good time they had with our distinguished Representative ask Mr. Oster to describe the scene.

Mr. Voter, read his record and consider the case carefully before you vote. John L. Bortz will make a Representative of whom we will not be ashamed and he will not help send Penrose back to the Senate.

HIS HAND STAYED

The history of the action of our License Court in disregarding the wishes of the people of several sections by thrusting license upon one section where they did not want it and by withholding it where it was desired, is well known to the people of the county. The strange movements of individuals who would secure a monopoly of the liquor trade in a section by the knocking out of a competitor against whom no charges were ever preferred and against whom there was no remonstrance, clouded the Court with odium.

Judge Brice declared it to be his purpose to clear away the clouds by an investigation, but his hand was stayed; some power higher up must have said no. The Reynolds organs never denied the charges made by

The Gazette, nor was any action in libel brought. We printed facts from the records and statements we were prepared to prove. It is now up to the voters to say whether an Associate Judge shall be returned to the bench, who with the other Associate reversed or overruled the whole Court.

Why did not Judge Brice proceed with his investigation? Why did he not clear the Court before the eyes of the people and his good name from all odium. He knew of things that were shady, and acknowledged them, but he let them pass and allowed the odium to remain upon the Court and upon his own head.

Judge Brice had not the backbone to proceed with an investigation as was his intention. This he should have done regardless of what the influence might be upon the political organization of which he is a member, but he lost his chance; some power or some influence caused him to desist. His hand was stayed. He did not have the courage of his convictions. Judges "should be made of sterner stuff." We do not charge Judge Brice with anything criminal, but he lacks in courage to carry out his convictions.

Surely the people of the county have enough of the present Court. Elect John T. Matt and he will aid in clearing away the ugly mist. We need a Court above reproach.

DILEMMA OF A TRIMMER

With most of the Republican candidates for Congress in Pennsylvania John M. Reynolds of this district is in favor of a revision of the tariff, whether "downward" or "upward" is quite another question. When he had no personal interest at stake he was an advocate of a reform of the tariff, if not for ultra free trade. But when he acquired a personal interest in the matter he became suddenly convinced of the beauty and brilliance of Protection with a large P. To cover his desertion of principles when he had nothing to gain by adhering to them he claimed, falsely enough, that he had been a "Randall Democrat," after a man who would have treated with the utmost scorn such an adherent.

But now, if elected to Congress, he will be put in somewhat of a dilemma between his personal interest in tariff spoils and the interests of the masses of his constituents, the farmers and working men of this district. Whilst it would not take him long to decide, it might save him from a disagreeable situation when it comes to an honest reduction of exorbitant tariff on the necessities of living, by keeping him at home where he can give his undivided attention to his personal interests. On the other hand his straight-forward Democratic opponent, Humphrey D. Tate, if elected to Congress, would have no interest to serve but that of the people. For them, and them only would he give his vote on the tariff and all other questions of public policy.

Of course, when a man changes his party and his opinions on considerations of public welfare, he deserves commendation instead of reproach. Party organizations legitimately exist only to promote desirable public measures. When they degenerate into mere spoils-gathering combinations and machines, they become a curse.

Tens of thousands of Republicans throughout the land are rallying to the Democratic cause and its candidates in the earnest conviction of the need of a change in the administration of their government. Some Democrats, in their extreme conservatism, do not think a change at this time is needed or desirable. Both are entitled to respect for their opinions. Without these changes the politics of the country would become a corrupt and stagnant pool, filled with all imaginable unclean things.

But when, in the entire tortuous public career of John M. Reynolds, has he put public considerations above or on a level with his selfish interests? When has party been to him other than a step ladder to reaching his personal ends? Democrat and Free Trader, Republican and Protectionist, he has been only for John M. Reynolds first, last, and all the time.

TAFT'S RELIGION

Elsewhere in this issue we publish a letter concerning the religion of the Republican candidate for President. Mr. Taft is a Unitarian and does not believe in Christ as the Son of God. The constitution specifically sets forth that a man's religion shall not bar him from holding public office, but it is well for the voters to consider what the effect of placing Mr. Taft in the White House might be upon the rising generation. The man who occupies the Presidential chair is looked up to and is taken by many as an example for the course of their lives. If the election of Taft is going to take Christ as a divine being from the lives of the growing generation it were far better that he be not exalted. Remove Christ and the cross and our faith is gone. Bryan exalts the name of the "Prince of Peace." Which do you prefer?

CAN REYNOLDS WIN?

them to still greater lengths in the upbuilding and buttressing of privilege.

Mr. Reynolds can make no honest pledge to the voters of this district that either he or his party can bring relief to a direful situation. He believes in things as they are. Perhaps it were better to say that he stands for things as they are because things as they are bring grist to his mill, no matter what they may bring to the toiler in the field or the forest, the mine or the mill. Mr. Reynolds has grown rich as the beneficiary of things as they are. But has the mill hand, the woodsman, the miner, the machinist, the small merchant, the farm laborer, the engineer, the brakeman, the track hand grown rich? What has any of these got out of the tariff or out of the privileges which Republicanism has bestowed on its favorites?

There is indeed uncertainty as to whether Mr. Reynolds will come through with a safe majority. He will not do so if the voters of this district are capable of the resentment they ought to feel against so pliant a subject of plutocratic rule as Mr. Reynolds has shown himself to be. Mr. Reynolds indeed faces a threatening situation and there is reason for hoping that next Tuesday the Nineteenth District will call to its service in the House a man who will vote to kill rather than to foster the trusts. They can do this by casting their ballots for Humphrey D. Tate. —Johnstown Democrat.

A HEAVY LOAD

The success of the Republican ticket this year is hampered to a very considerable extent by the burden of the nomination of Congressman Reynolds. The candidates, a number of them of his own choosing, are put to the trouble and expense of traveling the county soliciting what a Republican ticket would be entitled to—Republican support insuring the election of the whole ticket. It is a matter of history that the Republican party has been humiliated by defeat since this renegade Democrat forced himself upon an unwilling people. The policy of Reynolds has caused the defeat of the ticket in a number of instances in this county—but for him there never would have been a split in the Republican party. He left the Democratic party in a state of chaos, after sapping its vitals, and in a few years of office holding and office seeking has the Republican party in such a condition that causes old time Republicans to blush. He never has, nor never will he secure the united party vote. The rebuke that he has received in the past would dishearten the most chronic of office seekers, but not so with John M. He lost his ward, his home town and the county by 800.

This year not only will the votes that were cast against him at previous elections be withheld from his support, but the erstwhile Democrat has considerable difficulty in keeping the lid down on the troubles that have been brewing in his own camp since the year 1908 began. The prominent men of the county, Republicans all their lives, will not be heard from this fall, in support of Reynolds and his ticket.

The fellows who have in previous campaigns rallied around Reynolds and have worshipped at his shrine, have received an eye opener and have found their god of the tin type sort.

The lack of enthusiasm in this county is caused by having Reynolds on the ticket—no self-respecting Republican can support this "I am."

Where is the old time hurrah for the Republican ticket in Bedford County? Where is the big poster announcing that the following prominent men of Bedford County will address you? Such men as Hon. J. H. Longenecker, John H. Jordan, E. M. Pennell, Alvin L. Little, B. F. Madore, Senator W. C. Miller, of Bedford; M. H. Kramer of Hyndman, and others. Where, oh where are they? It's not too late yet to have them rally to his cause. Reynolds has not lifted his voice in the campaign as yet, save only to cuss the fellows who will not work for him. It might not be out of place for him to acquaint the farmers, miners and workmen with what he has done for them if anything except draw his salary. Is he tied to the corporations and the interests as opposed to Roosevelt to such an extent that he will not even condescend to solicit votes save by letter at the expense of the county committee?

The connection of Reynolds with the party, his candidacy for office is responsible for the party's defeat. The vote shows that he has always been unpopular in the Republican ranks.

The conscience of a nation won't stand for Foraker or any other public man tainted with the Standard Oil money. Supposing it had been shown that Foraker, as United States Senator, was the paid attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad or some other coal holding railroad company, would his conduct be less reprehensible? Is the difference in moral turpitude only one of degree, or, in the language of Foraker, is it still regarded as great an honor to be employed by a great corporation, that a Congressman can serve his country and yet take pay from and be the paid attorney of a monopoly.—Everett Press, October 25.

From the professed love expressed for the colored race last week by Editor Smith, we may expect an item this week in the Inquirer reading something like this: "John Bates, Esq., colored, was entertained at luncheon Tuesday evening by O. W. Smith, editor of the Inquirer."

Just about this time four years ago President Roosevelt, in his alarm over the danger of losing New York and his election, begged and obtained $260,000 from his "dear friend," E. H. Harriman, for the urgent needs of the campaign. The political situation is much more critical at this time in New York, as well as other portions of the country, and more money is needed than ever to corrupt the elections of the people and save the "Grand Old Party" from merited defeat.

This is the last week of the campaign. The Republicans pretend to be sure of 307 electoral votes, but every member of the Cabinet is to be on the stump this week in a last despairing effort to rouse the Republican voters to go to the polls for Taft. Actions speak louder than words, and they tell a story of Republican grave fears of defeat.—Philadelphia Record.

Schnably-Weaverling

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weaverling, North Juliana Street, was the scene of a quiet wedding at 7 o'clock last Thursday evening, October 22, when their daughter Matilda was united in marriage with Percy D. Schnably, Rev. Dr. Culler performing the ceremony.

The bride was an operator in the Bell Telephone Exchange and formerly lived at Rainsburg. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Schnably, of West Pitt Street, and is tie inspector for the P. R. R. Company. The Gazette joins in the congratulations of their many friends.

Bryan Ahead

The Philadelphia Press published yesterday the result of a straw ballot taken at the People's Theatre, which gave Bryan 247 and Taft 221—and this in Philadelphia, that hotbed of Republicanism.

"In accordance with your invitation I wish to state that, in my judgment, the election of Bryan would be for the best interests of the whole nation."

"He stands on much the better platform and will be guided by it in the event of his election. Mr. Taft is handicapped by the zealous advocacy of his cause by the predatory rich. Honest wealth and business have nothing to fear in Bryan's election."—John Mitchell's dispatch to the New York World.

George W. Blackburn, Sr.

George Wright Blackburn died at his home near New Paris Thursday morning, October 22, after a continued illness, at the age of 73 years, 11 months and two days. The deceased was a son of Abram and Barbara (Wright) Blackburn, and was the oldest of a family of nine children. The only surviving member is Dr. Isaac W. Blackburn of Washington, D. C., who was very attentive to his aged brother during his last illness.

Mr. Blackburn was first married to Miss Martha A. Conley who preceded him in death January 10, 1875. He afterward married Miss Laura Vickroy. The surviving children are: Clarence P. Blackburn of Ryot, A. Vickroy Blackburn of New Paris, and Vinnie A. and Junia of home.

Mr. Blackburn was the first commissioned postmaster of New Paris, and on July 5, 1864, opened and closed the first mail bag that came to that office. He was a great advocate of education, but not more so than Christianity. He became a member of the United Brethren Church in 1871 and was a consistent member of the same, regular in attendance as long as his health would permit. At the time of his death he was a trustee of the U. B. Church at New Paris of which he was one of the building committee. He was known for his honesty, uprightness, and conscientiousness, abhorring vulgarity and jesting. In his death the community has lost a good neighbor, the church a faithful member, and the home a true husband and kind father.

His funeral, which occurred Saturday morning, was largely attended. The services were conducted in the U. B. Church by his pastor, Rev. S. J. Wilson, assisted by Rev. G. W. King of the M. E. Church, basing his remarks on Job 14: 14, "If a man die, shall he live again?" His remains were interred in the Evangelical Cemetery at New Paris.

Remember 1907-8 and the days of industrial gloom.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Why these grapes? Because from the healthful grape comes the chief ingredient of Royal Baking Powder, Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Alum-phosphate powders are made with harsh mineral acids and must be avoided.

John J. Barclay

Following the death of his younger brother, R. D. Barclay, who died October 4, John Jacob Barclay passed away at his late residence on Juliana Street at 12:20 o'clock Thursday morning, October 22, from heart failure brought on by acute indigestion. Mr. Barclay was almost 76 years of age having been born December 16, 1832. He was the fourth son of Dr. Francis B. and Camilla Bonnet Barclay, who resided in Bedford where he was born, spent his early youth, and was educated.

He read law with the late Samuel Russell and was admitted to the Bedford bar in 1856; going west immediately after his admission he settled in Fort Dodge, Ia., where he practiced law until the outbreak of the Rebellion in 1861. With four others he raised a cavalry company which was mustered into service at Dubuque, Ia., in September 1861 and was immediately ordered to Washington, D. C., where it became Co. A of the 11th Penna. Cavalry.

The regiment saw active service continuously in Southern Virginia and North Carolina. Mr. Barclay, who reached the rank of First Lieutenant, was badly shot in the left side (carrying the bullet the remainder of his life) in the fight near Ream's Station, Va., on June 29, 1864, five officers of the regiment being killed in the engagement. Being subsequently captured, he was a prisoner in Libby and three other Rebel prisons. At the expiration of his term of service he was discharged a disabled man and spent the rest of his life in Pennsylvania. In 1868 he went to Newport as agent of the P. R. R., which position he held until April 1889, when he resigned and came to Bedford to live.

On October 7, 1873, he was married to Miss Laura Watson Bailey, who died April 11, 1889. Five children were born to them, all of whom survive: Misses Jessie B., Hetty, and Joseph J., at home; Dr. Hugh B. of Canada, and William P. of Springfield, Mass. He also leaves a brother and two sisters, William W., and Misses Emma and Mary, all of Bedford.

He was president of the Bedford Board of Health for five years. Though a soldier who saw active service and was injured, he never asked nor would receive a pension. In politics he was a Republican, though not bound by party lines.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. A. Eyer. Interment at this place.

Philip Norris

Philip Norris, colored, was found dead in bed at a hotel in Altoona on Monday, October 26. He had been employed as a cook at Cresson for some time and had been living in that section for the past 30 years. A bank book showing $400 to his credit was found in his pocket. His wife died a number of years ago. He was aged 55 years and was a son of Mrs. William Johnson of this place. He is survived by his step-father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. Nancy Henry of Johnstown and Jennie of Cleveland, O., and two step-brothers, Samuel Johnson of this place and Albert of Altoona.

Coaldale

October 28—How is the Broad Top region? Dead, dead as the President's fake reform policies. By the way, hasn't our strenuous executive degraded and belittled the dignity of his position, as was never heretofore known? A ward heeler or political bum could not have sullied the lustre of the Presidential office much worse.

Some of the Coaldale politicians are wondering where they are at. It has been whispered around for some time that M. E. Stunkard and John C. Nicholson, local Democrats, and Alexander Prosser, J. P., the local heavy-weight Republican politician since 1896, are not residents of the Borough of Coaldale, as they long supposed themselves to be. Their properties are said to be located in the territory of Broad Top Township. This is another tangle our borough friends will have to appeal to the Courts to straighten out—thanks to the class of men who have so long dominated the penurious old borough.

She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, three daughters and one son, two sisters and two brothers.

"The Philadelphia Record" Actively Supports Bryan

Accurate information of all the important moves on the campaign chess-board will be indispensable to every wide-awake voter.

Democrats turn naturally to "The Philadelphia Record" for such information. It is the only Democratic newspaper in Philadelphia recognized the country over as one of the leading exponents of Democratic opinion on this edge of the Continent. It is fair, though partisan; it chronicles the telling blow, no matter who is hit. Suppression and misrepresentation are weapons that have no place in its armory. "Square deal" Democrats and Republicans will find the daily budget of "The Record" essential to an intelligent understanding of the progress of a lively Presidential canvass.

No newspaper ever achieved popularity on the strength of its political attitude alone. "The Philadelphia Record" is no exception to the rule. It is lifted above the common level by many distinctive features that appeal to the varied interests of every member of the household. It prints the news—all the news—in a concise, brisk form that has come to be known, even among its contemporaries, as "Broad, brisk, proper sense of perspective." It is its thorough presentation of happenings in its own immediate field—Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Its editorial treatment of the questions of the day is at once well-balanced and aggressive. "The Philadelphia Record" exploits no fads and rides no hobbies, but it is pre-eminent in its special departments. It is the recognized authority in the field of sports and the turf. Farmers and shipbuilders swear by its market reports, which are always complete, accurate and wholly reliable. To the practical man its columns of popularized science are entertaining and helpful; the practical woman finds the matters that lie nearest to her heart treated amply—and sanely—in a department devoted to the home, dress and the world of feminine achievement. There is no corner in "The Record" for boys and girls; a weekly column of condensed, up-to-date information for the farmer; a daily bouquet of breezy anecdotes—"The Reporter's Nosegay"—so good that they are clipped and reprinted by newspaper editors throughout the country.

If you want a clean newspaper, worthy to occupy an honored place in the home circle—If you want a live newspaper without a streak of yellow in its make-up—If you want a stalwart Democratic newspaper that will keep you thoroughly posted on every phase of a stirring national campaign—If you want a family newspaper the profit and pleasure of reading which will be shared by others, no matter how diverse their tastes and inclinations—You want "The Philadelphia Record." It is the only paper that fills the bill.

"The Philadelphia Record" will be mailed to your address at the following rates: Daily (including Sunday), per year $4.50 Every week day, per year $3.00 Sunday Record, per year $1.50

CHAMPION WAGE CUTTER

A New Link in Taft's Record as a Federal Judge.

Chicago, Ill., October 26.—Al though Judge Taft has denied that he ever said $1 a day was enough for a working man, the fact has just been discovered by a representative of the Democratic National Committee, who examined his judicial decisions and injunction decrees, that he is on record in a decision from the bench, not only as recommending but actually ordering a reduction in the wages of railway employees practically to one dollar a day. He actually did order a cut of 10 per cent. in the wages of employees receiving over $35 per month and those receiving over $1.10 a day. Thus, by Judge Taft's decision, a man receiving $1.11 a day would be reduced practically to $1 a day. The decision was rendered by Judge Taft in the case of Thomas vs. Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway, Circuit Court, Southern District of Ohio, W. D., April 30, 1894, and is to be found in Fed. Rep., v. 62, p. 669. The action was one wherein the employees of the road had applied to the court to have rescinded an order of the receiver making a 10 per cent. reduction in their wages. His decision was made without giving the employees an opportunity to have their day in court and show why their wages should not be cut. He held that the mere 30 days' notice of reduction given by the receiver was sufficient. "They are now," he said, in his decision, "to be put in the attitude of either accepting or rejecting the proposition by the receiver who employed them at the reduced wages. IF THEY ARE NOT CONTENT WITH THE WAGES, THEY ARE NOT COMPELLED TO ACCEPT THEM, AND MAY RETIRE FROM HIS EMPLOYMENT. * * * They have no standing in this court, to call for an adjudication of any rights."

SAVED HIS BOY'S LIFE

"My three-year-old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. Ed. D. Heckerman.

Why It Will Close

The manufacturer of a much advertised cream separator, sold mainly by implement dealers, is out with an announcement to employees that if Bryan should be elected his factory will have to at once close down. Regardless of political preference everybody may judge for himself of the propriety of threatening employees in this manner.

But if this separator factory does close down it will not be because either Taft or Bryan is elected, but because of the sweeping success of the new 1908 line of improved De Laval machines, which has already "closed down" most attempted competition.

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbet was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Advisor will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

REPUBLICAN TARIFF AND PANICS

Ex-Secretary Shaw, a leading Republican, is the authority for the statement that the "stringency of 1907 is generally conceded to have been the severest the world has ever witnessed." And that panic came under the Dingley tariff passed by the Republicans, though in their platform they had solemnly (and falsely) declared that "a Republican tariff has always been followed by business prosperity." The fact that a Republican tariff was followed by "the severest panic the world has known" proves that Republican tariff panics went hand in hand in 1873 and 1907.

"LET THE PEOPLE RULE"

APPEAL TO DEMOCRATS

For Bryan and Kern Campaign Fund, from the Democratic National Committee.

To the Editor of The Gazette, Bedford, Pa.

Dear Sir: There are no secrets in this Campaign. Strictly practicing what he preaches, Mr. Bryan would not win victory with tainted money paying the election expenses.

Not a dollar is to be accepted which requires any promise, either expressed or implied, other than for HONEST, IMPARTIAL GOVERNMENT.

Mr. Bryan will enter the White House absolutely free from entangling alliances, free to serve all classes of honest citizens alike, or he will not enter it at all.

Hence the course is plain. The campaign of Bryan and Kern must be conducted by the people.

The people must pay the necessary campaign expenses if they want public servants who will serve their interests.

Special interests and favored classes, having secured "SWOLLEN FORTUNES" by purchasing favors in the past with MILLIONS CONTRIBUTED TO CONTROL ELECTIONS, stand ready to give MILLIONS MORE FOR CONTINUED FAVORS. But that class never gives a dollar unless it buys a pledge.

Mr. Bryan says, from March 4th, 1909, "LET THE PEOPLE RULE."

This can come only if the people pay their own bills, and control their own elections.

"BEWARE OF THE TRUSTS BEARING GIFTS."

That policy of the favored few buying a mortgage on the Government meant that the candidate for President knew a few people only in an entire state.

Bryan says, "We will take the cause of PEOPLE'S RULE home to the people in every county."

You can serve the grand cause of popular government through the columns of your paper. It reaches the fireside of the patriot who loves his country for his country's GOOD; as distinguished from the greedy possessor of swollen fortunes who loves the country only for his country's GOODS.

Please carry this letter in Bold Type at the masthead of your paper, asking every one who favors Government by the people to pay you, at once, as many dollars as he can spare to aid the Campaign for BRYAN, KERN AND PEOPLE'S RULE. You forward these gifts of honest hearts and homes every week to the Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, with the name of each contributor and amounts given. The Treasurer will forward you a certificate like the copy enclosed for each one, asking you to deliver these certificates.

Once more, you should be a part of the Great Organization bearing the Lamp of Light to every nook and corner of Free America.

Our Country is for the People; its Government must be by the People.

Sincerely,
NORMAN E. MACK, Chairman
Democratic National Committee.
M. C. WETMORE, Chairman
National Finance Committee.

Send in Your Contributions

In accordance with the above The Gazette will receive subscriptions to the Democratic National Campaign Fund and urges all loyal Democrats to send in their contributions. The Gazette will transmit them weekly to treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, who will issue to each contributor a beautifully executed acknowledgment printed in three colors as a souvenir of their devotion to the cause of Democracy and the principles of Government by the People.

General Election Proclamation.

God Save the Commonwealth!

WHEREAS, BY THE TENTH Section of an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act to amend the 10th Section of an Act entitled, 'An Act to regulate the nomination and election of public officers, requiring certain expenses incident thereto to be paid by the several counties, and punishing certain offenses in regard to such election,'" approved the 26th day of June, A. D. 1895, it is provided as follows: "Section 10.—It shall be the duty of the Sheriff of every county, at least ten days before any general election to be held therein, except borough and township elections, to give notice of the same by advertisements in at least three newspapers, if there be so many published in the county, two of said newspapers representing so far as practicable the political party which at the preceding November election cast the largest number of votes and the other one of said newspapers representing so far as practicable the political party which at the preceding November election cast the next largest number of votes, and in addition thereto the Sheriff of every county shall, at least ten days before any general election to be held in cities of the first, second and third classes, give notice of the same by proclamation posted up in the most conspicuous places in every election district in said cities of the first, second and third class and in every such advertisement or proclamation, to: Enumerate the officers to be elected and give a list of all the nominations made as provided in this act and to be voted for in such county, and the full text of all constitutional amendments submitted to a vote of the people, but the proclamation posted in each election district need not contain the names of any candidates but those to be voted for in such district.

II. Designate the place at which the election is to be held.

III. He shall give notice that every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary Department of this State or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law, incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for except that of an election officer.

Therefore, I, JOSEPH P. IMLER, High Sheriff of the County of Bedford, do make known by this proclamation, to the electors of said county, that a general election will be held on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1908, (it being the Tuesday next following the first Monday of said month) in the several election districts of Bedford County, at which time and place the said electors will vote by ballot for the following officers, to wit:

Thirty-four persons to be electors for a President and Vice President of the United States.

One person for Judge of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

One person for Representative in Congress for the Nineteenth District of Pennsylvania.

One person for Representative in the General Assembly of Pennsylvania.

One person for Associate Judge of Bedford County.

One person for Sheriff of Bedford County.

One person for Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts of Bedford County.

One person for Register of Wills and Recorder of Deeds of Bedford County.

One person for Treasurer of Bedford County.

One person for District Attorney of Bedford County.

Two persons for County Commissioners of Bedford County.

One person for Director of the Poor of Bedford County.

Two persons for Auditors of Bedford County.

One person for Coroner of Bedford County.

PENNSYLVANIA

Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

This is to certify that the following is the Official List of the names of all candidates for the offices of Presidential Elector and Judges of the Superior Court, to be voted for in the State at large at the ensuing General Election to be held on Tuesday, the Third day of November, 1908, as appears by the Certificates of Nomination filed in this office by the State Conventions of the several political parties in this Commonwealth, and by Nomination Papers filed herein which have not been found or declared to be invalid as provided by Section 9 of the Act of June 10, 1893; also, the Official List of the names of all candidates nominated at the Uniform Primary Election held Saturday, April 11, 1908, as tabulated from the returns certified to this office by the County Commissioners, and also of all candidates nominated by Nomination Papers filed in this office as provided by section 9 of the said Act of June 10, 1893, for the offices of Representative in Congress for the Nineteenth Congressional District, of Representative in the General Assembly for the District of the County of Bedford, and of Associate Judge of the County of Bedford, to be voted for in the County of Bedford, at said General Election.

To vote a straight party ticket mark a cross (X) in the square, in the first column, opposite the name of the party of your choice.

A cross mark in the square at the head of a group of Presidential electors, opposite the name of a party and its Presidential candidates, is a vote for all the electors of that party, but for no other candidates.

A cross mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate.

OPPOSES REYNOLDS

the cringing servitor of the Honorable Reynolds, can hope to be elected to a county office by the votes of the self-respecting men who made the party great. Today, the candidates for county offices are spending money and time drumming up votes hoping to save themselves from defeat from being allied to the Honorable Reynolds, while he laughs in his sleeve and trusts to be elected by the voters of the counties where he is not so well known.

"The time has come to teach this man a lesson and to loosen his strangling grip on the party organization. Nothing short of political annihilation will penetrate his armor. A reduction in his majority will not help. So long as he can hold office and obtain the pay of a Congressman and the patronage of the place, it matters not to him whether his majority be one or a thousand. The people of the 19th Pennsylvania District have been without voice in the affairs of the nation for four years and the duty of every Republican, believing in the principles of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt and desirous that his children shall enjoy the blessings of free institutions, is to emancipate the Republican party from the misery of further misrepresentation at the hands of this man Reynolds.

"Better, far better, that this district have no representative in the Halls of Congress, than that it be further burdened with this distributor of seeds.

"His crushing defeat cannot affect party measures.

"As loyal men, with the best interests of your country at heart, it is the sacred duty of every Republican in the district to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote to keep John M. Reynolds at home. The day of emancipation for Bedford County is at hand. His home county will bury him under an avalanche of votes next Tuesday, and his only hope, if hope there be, is in the other two counties. But the people of Cambria and Blair have had four years in which to become acquainted with Mr. Reynolds, what he lacks as well as what he stands for. If they want him, let them elect him. As for Bedford County, her sons on next Tuesday will vote to emancipate themselves from his dictatorial rule.

"A vote against John M. Reynolds will be a vote for human freedom, for common humanity.

WILL GIVE RETURNS

Bell Telephone Company Making Great Preparations.

The Bell Telephone Company is preparing to give out election returns on the night of November 3 to all subscribers who desire to have connections made and who notify their local managers on or before October 30. In party lines all subscribers must agree to have the connections made before the service will be established.

Unusually complete preparations are being made to secure prompt and accurate returns. Special Long Distance wires will connect Pittsburgh with Columbus, O., and Charleston, W. Va., also with 200 election bureaus established for the collection of local returns from Pittsburgh and points surrounding, within a radius of 150 miles. A special corps of editors will summarize the returns as received and will prepare the bulletins for distribution. Added to this local system will be service from general bulletin wires making direct connections with the election bureau of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company at New York City, which bureau will receive reports by direct wire from all parts of the United States.

The associated Bell Companies on the night of election will have over 30,000 employees engaged in the collection and distribution of returns and will connect up, specially for the occasion, over 600,000 miles of Long Distance telephone circuits, besides 3,000 miles of telegraph circuits.

The arrangements made are such that, within five minutes of the completion of a poll in any part of the United States, the news of the results will be in the hands of every one of the 4,000,000 subscribers of the Bell System.

It seems like "sending coals to Newcastle" to dispatch unwilling Senator Knox post haste to Ohio to help Mr. Taft carry his own State. But there is a panic in the Republican camp. All the reserves are being pushed to the front.—Philadelphia Record.

Will Pay Premiums

I will be ready to pay the premiums of the Bedford County Agricultural Society on Monday, November 2, 1908. J. S. CORLE, Treas.

A Pleasing Incident

The light force of workmen on the great dailies of New York City wanted to hear Mr. Bryan. They could not leave their work at night, and so they requested him to come down to newspaper row and talk to them when their work for the night was done. Mr. Bryan was on the spot and the unusual spectacle of a mass meeting at 4 o'clock in the morning was the result. We venture to say that nothing like it was ever seen before in the history of this country. And, by the way, did any one hear of a call like that being made upon Mr. Taft?—Cumberland Times.

Friend's Cove Reformed Charge

There will be services in all the congregations comprising the Friend's Cove Charge of the Reformed Church on Sunday, November 15, at which time there will be an election for pastor. Definite notice as to the hour of service in each of the churches will be given later.

OPEN A BOX

of HIGHLAND LINEN Writing Paper and you will be immediately impressed with "that indescribable something called style" which pervades it.

It is discernible in the beautiful fabric finish, in the shape of the paper and envelopes—in fact, the very box itself bespeaks refinement and good taste.

This is why the sale of HIGHLAND LINEN has excelled that of any other social correspondence paper on the market.

Let your next list of purchases include a box of HIGHLAND LINEN. We sell it for 25c a box.

Practical Things. There is some good fiction in The Ladies' Home Journal for November, but there are also practical things—things that you can have and do.

"What Forty Girls Have Found Out," by Laura A. Smith, is one article. Miss Smith is the girl who made the tour of the churches for The Journal, and you remember how interesting that was.

Here are some other titles: "How to Protect Your Plants," by Frances Duncan; "Good Things for Breakfast," by Maria Parloa; "Good Taste and Bad Taste in Dressing the Hair," a series of pictures showing the different effects.

Among the most practical things in the world are The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns. More and more women are using them successfully. We want to help you; we are helping other women utilize these patterns. You can see them at our counter.

The Journal, itself, is on sale each month, at 15 cents per copy, or we will forward your annual subscription direct to the publishers at $1.50 per year.
